Media Release

NSW GBOTA Members' Incentive Schemes

(Changes effective August 1, 2011)

Tuesday, July 19, 2011

Following the Board of Directors' meeting on July 16, 2011, the NSW GBOTA wishes to advise members of changes to the NSW GBOTA Members' Race Meeting and Branch Attendance Schemes.

Effective Monday August 1, 2011 NSW GBOTA Members' Race Meeting Bonus Scheme will revert back to grant NSW GBOTA members who are the owner, trainer or breeder of the winner of a Members' Bonus Race $100 per category.

The payment of $100 per category (owner and/or trainer and/or breeder) is an increase of $25 per category on current payments.

Races are staged at all NSW GBOTA meetings, with the Members' Bonus Race determined by public draw prior to the commencement of all NSW GBOTA race meetings.

In the 2010/2011 financial year, the NSW GBOTA Members' Race Meeting Bonus Scheme paid out over $28,000 to eligible members.

The Chairman and Directors of the NSW GBOTA also reviewed the NSW GBOTA Members' Branch Attendance Bonus Scheme on July 16, which was introduced in November 2010.

Effective from August 1, 2011, the NSW GBOTA Members' Branch Attendance Bonus Scheme will see a successfully drawn NSW GBOTA Member, if eligible, receive $500.

A members' draw will take place at Wentworth Park on the first Saturday of every month. If the drawn member is then determined to have attended a Branch meeting in the previous calendar month, then they will receive a payment of $500.

No jackpot will apply from August 1, 2011 and Directors of the NSW GBOTA are not eligible to participate in the Branch Attendance Bonus Scheme.

For further information please contact the NSW GBOTA (02) 9649 7166.
