Wentworth Park

Race Sponsorship Conditions and Information

Thank you for registering your interest to undertake a Race Sponsorship at Wentworth Park. Please find following important information regarding Trophy Presentation, Race Naming, Attire, Photos and attendance information.

Race Naming:

The name you wish to have on your event must be submitted 2 weeks prior to selected race meeting for approval. Names are up to 30 Characters in length (including spaces). The NSW GBOTA will select race positioning, distance and grade.

Race Meeting Information:

Wentworth Park races Friday and Saturday evenings (with the exception of Good Friday and Christmas Day).

Friday race meetings begin at approximately 6.30pm, with the exact first race time published the Tuesday afternoon prior to race meetings – www.wentworthpark.com.au on the Fields page under Racing Menu.

Saturday race meetings begin at 7.27pm, fields can be found for this meeting are published the Tuesday afternoon prior to race meetings – www.wentworthpark.com.au on the Fields page under Racing Menu.

Entry

We ask race sponsors to get to Wentworth Park prior to Race 1 and see staff located at the Race Night Office on arrival. Any additional information will be given to you by Wentworth Park staff at this point, as well as arranging a suitable meeting spot and time for your presentation. If you have any questions please do not hesitate to speak with staff in the Race Night Office. The Race Night office is located in the Grandstand on Ground Level at the Wentworth Park Road end of the complex.

Trophy

As part of your sponsorship we request you bring a trophy for presentation to the winning connections of your event. A basic bottle of wine is well received and makes presentations run smoothly.

Trophy costs are not included in the Race Sponsorship Fee, however Wentworth Park Greyhounds (NSW GBOTA) are happy to supply a trophy for an additional cost if required. Please speak with Ellen when making your booking.

Presentations:

Up to two members of the group will be permitted on the track to complete the presentation following the race. Groups are requested to be at the Presentation area, in front of the winning post immediately following the running of sponsored event.

An appropriate staff member will accompany selected members onto the presentation area, and assist in completing the presentation, those completing the presentation should be adequately dressed, persons who are not dressed appropriately or intoxicated will not be permitted to participate in the presentation.

Guests are reminded that it is an offence to invade the racing surface, charges can be laid if a patron runs on the track without permission. This offence can carry up to a $5,500 fine, so please brief your party not to run on the track.

Photos:

Professional photos are available to be taken by oncourse photographer Craig Youll.

Craig Youll provides fantastic race photos each and every week of all the Wentworth Park racing action and presentations (on request). If you are having a special night trackside and want a professional photo, see Craig. He can be found either trackside or at the southern end of the grandstand.

Functions:

Wentworth Park has a policy of no Buck or Hens functions in the Level 1 Function Centre. Adequate catering options can be found on the ground and lower ground levels.

Attire

Groups undertaking race sponsorship should note that adequate, casual and neat attire is required for persons attending the race meeting, of particular importance for those completing the presentation.

Buck and Hens parties should note that no persons in inappropriate attire or intoxicated will be permitted entry into Wentworth Park.

Behaviour:

Wentworth Park has a stringent responsible service of alcohol policy, and crowd management protocols. Attendees of Wentworth Park should note that if required patrons may be approached by Security, and in serious situations of inappropriate behaviour patrons and/or groups may be asked to leave.

Should you have any problems with other patrons behaviour please speak with a member of the Security staff.

Patrons should also note that track invasions will not be tolerated and Wentworth Park retains the right to have persons removed from the racecourse, charged and/or fined if required.

Should you have any further questions please do not hesitate to contact Wentworth Park on (02) 8587 1210.

We ask as the group contact you sign the booking form to confirm you will adhere to these conditions. As the group contact you understand in the event of inappropriate attire members of your party may not be permitted entry, no refund will apply to your sponsorship.

In the event of poor behaviour a patron/s may be requested to leave, no refund will apply to your sponsorship.
